As per the directions of the University Grants Commission, New Delhi, vide letter F.No. 1-74/2016 (AR July 05, 2023/Aashad 14, 1945), regarding a week long (12th August to 18th August 2023) anti-ragging week, the anti-ragging committee organised the following programs as part of the awareness programme about the menace of ragging, and the redressal mechanisms available.

As part of the above mandate, Essay writing and poster competitions were held on 12th and 17th August, respectively; and on 18th August, two legal experts, Shri Harendra Singh Mehta, SO, Police Department (who has also been nominated as member of the Anti-ragging Cell, by the local Police Department) and Ms. Suchitra Belwal, Advocate, Divisional Court, Haldwani, were invited to give talks, primarily focussed on the redressal mechanisms available with the aggrieved students. A number of examples on the menace of ragging prevalent in some of the local medical and engineering institutes was highlighted by the speakers; the events which were very well covered by the local dailies, too, was brought forth, so that the students could relate themselves to such acts. It was decided that the mobile numbers of the In-charge of important redressal cells, like Student Grievances Redressal Cell, Sexual harassment (prevention, prohibition, and Redressal) Cell, Legal Cell, Anti-ragging Cell, Mental health & Wellness Cell, be made available to all the students, to make the redressal mechanism effective. Towards the end of the programme, a number of students too were invited to share their thoughts, not just on the subject matter of ragging, but other more relevant issues, such as sexual harassment.
